

Dear residents,

Brisbane Festival favourite – Riverfire is back in all its glory next Saturday, 3 September.

You all would have received notification from Brisbane Festival relating to the road closures for Riverfire and the BOQ Festival Garden at South Bank Parklands. If not, we have attached again for your reference. Please ensure you read this notice to be aware of the road closures in the South Bank precinct for this event.

Tenancy upgrades

- Poppies and Brooklyn Depot are now open post refurbishment!
- Fitout works for our new tenant at Central Cafes is well underway, with a late September opening date.
- Tipplers Tap and Baba Ganouj are relocating and expanding. Temporary fencing is now up on Little Stanley Street in readiness for demolition and fitout works.
- Coming soon to Stanley Street Plaza – Karen’s Diner an interactive dining experience. Expected to open 1 September.

Upcoming events

- Riverfire - Saturday 3 September. Please be reminded that there will be a period where the Parklands is barricaded off. The fireworks will kick off at 7pm. There will be a full closure of Grey Street from 4pm – 11pm.
- Brisbane Festival – various South Bank locations, 2-24 September.

SBC Road Closure Notifications:

Event/Activity	Road/s	From	To	Closure Details
Brisbane Festival – event bump in	Little Stanley Street	6am	11pm	Thursday, 1 September – Saturday 3 September
Brisbane Festival – BOQ Festival Garden bump-out	Little Stanley Street	South Bank Piazza Carpark	Ernest Street	26 – 27 September, 7.30am – 4pm both lanes closed

What’s happening at South Bank

To find out what’s happening across the precinct this month, click on the links below:

- South Bank events
- Queensland Conservatorium
- QPAC
- BCEC