

Dear residents

It's been a busy time at South Bank over the last few months and there is more to come with the postponed Ekka public holiday on Friday 29 October.

Pop-up activation: Potion Putt

A new wizardry mini golf course experience from the team behind The Wizard's Den will be held at South Bank.

Embark on nine wand-erful holes of magic and encounter bubbling cauldrons, tasty potions and magical portals along the way. You may even be required to cast a few spells in order to excel and complete the mystical tee-off challenge.

Plenty of tasty drinks and refreshments will also be available, including toad topped cupcakes, chocolate frogs, uni-pop-corn and sorcerer's soda. There will also be a variety of magical themed cauldron cocktails, butterscotch beer, alcoholic potions and magical mocktails to purchase.

Potion Putt will be opening towards the end of October on Little Stanley Street, and will be located on the corner, between Hop & Pickle and The Wizard's Den. The pop-up will be operating in line with a noise management plan.

Tenancy works update

Doughnut Time

Doughnut Time is expanding its tenancy; works will include new shopfront and signage. There will be some noise generated from the use of power tools and demolition. The works are within the tenancy however some dust may also be generated.

Dates and time: 25 October to 26 November 2021 from 7am to 5pm.

Cork & Chroma

The existing air conditioning system will be removed and replaced. There will be some noise and dust generated from the use of power tools and demolition of ceiling. Works will be contained within the tenancy.

Dates: 25 October to 29 October from 7am to 5pm

Maintenance update

Neville Bonner Bridge works

Due to the wet weather last week, these night works have been rescheduled, these will now take place from 8pm Sunday 24 October to 6am Monday 25 October.

During this time we can expect a higher frequency of construction vehicle movements between the construction zone and Russell Street; minor noise is also likely from concrete trucks entering and exiting site.

Ferry Terminal update

Works due to be completed on 14 October have been postponed due to wet weather. Brisbane City Council will be provide revised dates as soon as possible.

Please note the above construction updates are weather dependent and subject to change.
